Alec Soth

Sleeping by the Mississippi

20 September - 21 October 2017

Beetles+Huxley will host the first exhibition in London to focus on Alec Soth's critically acclaimed photographic series "Sleeping by the Mississippi". One of the defining publications in the photo-book era, "Sleeping by The Mississippi" is a seminal body of work from the recent history of photography. This latest exhibition will include over twenty-five colour prints, and will include one never-before-exhibited photograph.

The exhibition coincides with the launch of the latest MACK edition of the book, which also includes two previously unpublished images. First published by Steidl in 2004, "Sleeping by the Mississippi" was Soth's first book, sold through three editions, and established him as one of the leading lights of contemporary photographic practice.

Evolving from a series of road trips along the Mississippi River between 1999 and 2002, "Sleeping by the Mississippi" captures America's iconic yet often neglected "third coast". Soth's richly descriptive, large-format colour photographs present an eclectic mix of individuals, landscapes, and interiors.

Like Robert Frank's classic "The Americans", "Sleeping by the Mississippi" merges a documentary style with poetic sensibility. The Mississippi is less the subject of the book than its organising structure. Not bound by a rigid concept or ideology, the series is created out of a quintessentially American spirit of wanderlust. Thirteen years since the book was first published, the artist's lyrical view has undoubtedly acquired new meanings - ones in which hope, fear, desire and regret coalesce in the evocative journey along this mythic river.

Alec Soth (b. 1969) is a photographer born and based in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He has published over twenty-five books including "Sleeping by the Mississippi" (2004), "NIAGARA" (2006) "Broken Manual" (2010) and "Songbook" (2015). Soth has had over fifty solo exhibitions including survey shows organized by Jeu de Paume in Paris (2008), the Walker Art Center in Minnesota (2010) and Media Space in London (2015). Soth is a member of Magnum Photos and has been the recipient of numerous fellowships and awards, including the Guggenheim Fellowship (2013).
